

1 Retro Chat

Tweens and teens will enjoy the old corded phone handsets we grew up with when they use The POP Phone by Native Union, available in a rainbow of cool colors. The handset can be used with all mobile phones when fitted with the correct adaptor. $25 and up at amazon.com.

2 Cool Cleansing

Get boys to wash up after sports and playtime with Stinky Boyz, a line of all natural hygiene products for boys and young men. Soaps come in fun sports-ball shapes. $9.99 each at stinky-boyz.com.

3 Express Yourself

Stackable Statements are colorful leather bracelets that make a statement—literally. Each has a catchphrase for endless mixing and matching. $8 at Lester's, 90 Northern Blvd. at Glen Cove Rd., Greenvale and 3350 Rte. 110, Huntington Station.

4 You're Invited

When party planning, plan on invitations from InvitationBox.com. They offer tons of unique designs to meet virtually every party theme. Prices vary, at InvitationBox.com.

5 De-Frizzer

Infused with olive oil, Rickycare No-Frizz Combs were created to tame frizz and add shine to girls' hair. Each comb is good for 25,000 strokes. $5.99-$7.99 at rickysNYC.com.

6 Cute Carry-All

Little girls will delight in Stephen Joseph's adorably shaped quilted purses and wallets, which come in themes like Cupcake, Bumble Bee and Owl. Prices vary. To find a retailer near you, visit stephenjosephgifts.com.

